DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

A broad range or limitation together with a narrow range or limitation that falls within the broad range or limitation (in the same claim) is considered indefinite, since the resulting claim does not clearly set forth the metes and bounds of the patent protection desired. See MPEP § 2173.05(c). Note the explanation given by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences in Ex parte Wu, 10 USPQ2d 2031, 2033 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1989), as to where broad language is followed by "particularly" and then narrow language. The Board stated that this can render a claim indefinite by raising a question or doubt as to whether the feature introduced by such language is (a) merely exemplary of the remainder of the claim, and therefore not required, or (b) a required feature of the claims. Note also, for example, the decisions of Ex parte Steigewald, 131 USPQ 74 (Bd. App. 1961); Ex parte Hall, 83 USPQ 38 (Bd. App. 1948); and Ex parte Hasche, 86 USPQ 481 (Bd. App. 1949). In the present instance, claim 1 recites the broad recitation "A driving device", and the claim also recites "particularly a lifting device" which is the narrower statement of the range/limitation.

Claim 5 recites the limitation "the second connection" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 10 recites the limitation "the first connection" in line 3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claims 2-4, 6-9, and 11 are indefinite by virtue of their dependency on claims 1 and 10.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-5, and 9, as far as they are definite, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Smith (5,287,885).

In figures 6-11, Smith teaches a driving device, particularly a lifting device for a working vehicle comprising, a drive in the form of a hydraulic motor 18, said drive 18 having a lifting connection 59 and a lowering connection 60, a pump (not shown) and a control valve arrangement 22 between the drive 18 and the pump; and wherein from a first operating state, in which the motor 18 is driven in a single-acting manner, the control valve arrangement 22 can be switched to a second operating state, in which the motor 18 is driven in a double-acting manner, the motor 18 is in the form of a hydraulic cylinder, the control valve arrangement 22 includes a control valve 33 for controlling one movement direction of the motor 18 and a change-over valve 42, by which the motor 18 can be switched between its single-acting function and its double-acting function, the changeover valve 42 is located between the control valve 33 and the motor 18, the changeover valve 42 is connected with a second connection 40 of the motor 18, the changeover valve 42 can be activated electrically.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 6-8, 10, and 11 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Prior Art

Prior art made of record but not relied upon is considered pertinent to Applicant's disclosure and consist of two patents.

Barley (2,780,204) is cited to show a hydraulic cylinder and a control valve arrangement with a single-acting and double acting states but fails to teach a lifting and a lowering connections.

Svenson (3,044,266) is cited to show a hydraulic cylinder and a control valve arrangement, the cylinder having a lifting and a lowering connections but fails to teach the control valve arrangement that switches from a single acting state to a double acting state.
